

ACCOUNTING

Accountancy communicates relevant and reliable financial information to different groups of people. Accountants develop financial statements that are released to shareholders, banks, managers and employees within the company, regulatory agencies, taxing authorities, and the general public.

Accounting focuses on financial accounting, managerial accounting, auditing, taxation, and accounting information systems. Accountants measure costs, compare results with planned outcomes, prepare budgets, perform audits and participate in business and tax planning. These responsibilities require high levels of mathematic, computer, and analytical skills.

The School of Accountancy at Wichita State University is committed to preparing you to become a Professional Accountant. The Bachelor degree in Accounting along with the Master of Accountancy degree aims to prepare you for the Certified Public Accountants (CPA) Exam. You may also consider pursuing other professional certifications such as Certificate in Management Accounting (CMA) or Certified Internal Auditor (CIA).

The W. Frank Barton School of Business also offers a Master of Accountancy with concentrations in Taxation and Accounting Information Systems.

Advantages

Wichita State University is located in the largest economic and cultural center in the state of Kansas. Because of the location, the W. Frank Barton School of Business utilizes relationships with local, national and international companies to provide real-world experiences. Some companies who have partnered with the Barton School of Business include Allen, Gibbs & Houlik LC, Grant Thornton, Dean and Deluca, Koch Industries Inc., LSI, Spirit AeroSystems Inc., The Coleman Company, Cargill, and CID Group in China.

All business students are encouraged to take advantage of the following opportunities available: Cooperative Education, Internships, Career Network Experience, Community Organizations, Student Groups, National Student Exchange, and Study Abroad. The Barton School of Business currently has study abroad exchange programs in Austria, Germany, Sweden, France, Mexico, China, Taiwan, and Japan with many classes taught in English.

The W. Frank Barton School of Business is committed to excellence in teaching, research and publication. The faculty represents diverse interests, certifications, and backgrounds. The faculty members publish regularly in a variety of top business journals, and have also written several business textbooks. Faculty members have received or been nominated for numerous awards for teaching, such as the WSU Regents Teaching Award, the WSU Board of Trustees in Excellence in Teaching Award, and the Academy for Effective Teaching Award.

The Barton School is accredited by AACSB International – the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business. AACSB Accreditation is the longest standing and most recognized professional accreditation in the world. The Barton School of Business maintains the highest level of accreditation by having all business and accounting programs at all levels (undergraduate and graduate) being accredited. Less than 5% of the world's business schools have earned AACSB Accreditation. Only 175 institutions have earned the specialized AACSB Accreditation for Accounting.

The scholarship program annually commits over a quarter million dollars to students in all areas of business. Scholarships range from $250 to the $44,000 Clay Barton Scholarship.

Admission

When you choose to major in Accounting, you are admitted to the W. Frank Barton School of Business. An academic adviser from the Business Advising Center will help you enroll in an orientation course where you will learn to develop a study plan and specific requirements for degree completion.

Related Programs

All business majors share the Advanced Standing and Business Core Requirements. Students may choose to double major or minor in other areas of business such as economics, entrepreneurship, finance, human resource management, international business, management, management information systems, marketing, operations management, and personal selling.

The W. Frank Barton School of Business also offers four master's degree programs. Students may choose to specialize in general business administration, finance, marketing, entrepreneurship & innovation, health care administration, technology & operations management, or get a master's degree in economics.
